Singers in Accord and J.D. Steele present “Ignite the Spirit – Realize the Dream,” a benefit concert for the Shangilia Foundation, at 7:30 p.m. Saturday, Feb. 12, at the O’Shaughnessy, 2004 Randolph Ave, St. Paul.

“In honor of Black History Month, Singers in Accord will perform with the MacPhail Community Youth Choir and Suzuki String Ensemble under the dynamic direction of J.D. Steele in a benefit concert for Shangilia Foundation USA (SFUSA),” according to a news release.

“Empowering messages of peace, hope, and love will fill the O’Shaughnessy through stirring arrangements of African and American music by J.D. Steele. The performance will include a moving medley of spirituals, and the energetic African ‘Masai Jumping Dance.’”

Proceeds will go toward the foundation’s work to build a rescue center for orphaned children living in Nairobi, Kenya.
